OFFICIALS PLEASED AT GERMANY'S STAND IN ARABIC MATTER

GOVERNMENT HAS DECIDED ON DEFINITE POLICY IN ACCORD
WITH CHANCELLOR—IF COM-MANDER EXCEEDED ORDERS,
SATISFACTION GUARANTEED.

NO OFFICIAL REPORT MADE

So Far as Known Officer in Charge
of Underwater Craft That Fired the Fatal Shot Has Not Made a Statement to Berlin—This Is Awaited.
Tension Relieved.

Washington, Aug. 30.—Press dispatches from Berlin saying Germany
had decided upon a policy in connection with the sinking of the Arabic
in accord with the recent statement
of the imperial chancellor, were noted
with satisfaction today in official circles here.

The chancellor said it developed
that a German submarine commander
had gone beyond his instructions, Germany would not hesitate to give complete satisfaction to the United States. Formal assurance to this effect was given the state department
last week by Count von Bernstorff,
the German ambassador, on instructions from Berlin. The ambassador already had informed Secretary Lansing that German submarines had been ordered to torpedo no more peaceful merchantmen without warning.

So far as officials here know, the submarine commander who attacked
the Arabic has not yet reported to Berlin. Until this report has been awaited for a reasonable time the Washington government does not expect the promised formal communication from the imperial government.
One dispatch reached the state department today from Ambassador Gerard but Secretary Lansing said it threw
no new light on the situation.

In German quarters tonight it was said that Count Bernstorff probably would return to Washington from Long Island Thursday. This was considered to mean that the ambassador looked for action by his government
about that time.

Pound Sterling Drops in Value Again

New York, Aug. 30.—Two things
stood out tonight as the dominant
features of the day's foreign exchange market.

English gold and American securities to the amount of $45,000,000 were
on hand to help redeem the pound
sterling from its latest recorded depression.

The pound sterling dropped a cent
and a half more in value.
New low values of the pound sterling
have become a matter of daily occurrence. For the past four business days a new record has been established each day.

In its downward plunge sterling carried with it all continental exchange
except Russian rubles, in which declines were said to be extremely light.
This money showed an improvement
over Saturday, rising from 34.25 to 34.50. Francs went to 6.02, within three points of their previous low record of depreciation, and lire declined to 5.2, four points from their former record. German reichsmarks fell to 80 7/8, three-quarters of a cent
above the low record and about the same amount below their rise of last week.

With the markets thoroughly demoralized, no one in high banking circles cared to venture an explanation
or a forecast. A number of half-dozen big business houses said they were not interested in the latest figures. This was taken to mean that they had virtually ceased to deal in foreign exchange for the time being.

Retail Druggists Meet.
Minneapolis, Aug. 30.—The National Association of Retail Druggists met
here in annual convention this evening.
Addresses of welcome were given
by Governor Hammond, Mayor Nye of Minneapolis and Mayor Powers of St.
Paul.

SUMMARY OF WAR

With General von Beseler, the captured of Antwerp and Novogorodsk in command, the Germans again have resumed
a strong offensive in the Baltic region
south of the important port of Riga and have begun attacks near the Dvina bridgehead south of Friedrichstadt and along the railroad running from Miao
to Friedrichstadt. The Russians, according to Petrograd, again are offering strong resistance to the attempted onward march of the Teutons.

Elsewhere on the long front southward from Courland to southeast Galicia the Germans and the Austrians, according to the official reports of Berlin and Vienna,
are continuing with success their drives
against the Russians. Lipka to the west of the fortress of Grodno, has been taken by storm and the Russians forced to surrender. A further advance to the east of Bialystok has been made, while the Austrians and Germans continue their chase of the Muscovites through the Pri-piet marshes to the east of Brest Litovsk.

Vienna asserts that the Russians along the Stripsa river in southeastern Galicia
have tried ineffectually to stem the Austrian advance, but despite their stubborn resistance, especially in the Koropce district, have been defeated. Over the border in Russian gains of terrain near Lutsk and a continuation of the pursuit of the Rus-

Big Mortars Shake Vicinity When Tested for Coast Defense

LOADING
BATTERY IN POSITION FOR FIRING
PHOTOS BY AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION

Testing the monster 12-inch coast defense mortars in Port Totten, guarding the eastern approach to New York City, the firing began at about 10:35 o'clock in the morning and for some time the roar of the big guns shook Long Island for miles in every direction. The mortars were elevated to an angle of about 45 degrees in their deep pits, there was a moment of intense expectancy and then a flash and the great mass of metal went hurtling toward the target 15,000 yards away. Those who did not have cotton stuffed in their ears at the time of the first discharge were quick to get some for the concussion was anything but pleasant. They could watch the projectile curving up until it reached the zenith of its flight, and then as it began to drop it was lost to view. Six practice shots were fired first and then six salvos of two guns each. Seventy pounds of smokeless powder were used for each discharge, which cost about $75. At night there was another hour of mortar practice, beginning at 9 o'clock.

Black River Levee Breaks and Adds to the Big Flood

Little Rock, Ark., Aug. 30.—A levee
on Black river, a tributary to White river, broke near Pocahontas this afternoon, and added several thousand acres to the flooded districts of North Arkansas. The break was not unexpected and the residents of the over-flooded section escaped, but much livestock was lost and the damage to crops was heavy.

The Newport relief committee tonight announced that the people of Arkansas have responded so generously to appeals for aid for flood sufferers that no more assistance will be required. The committee has sufficient money to care for all the refugees in that city.

The crest of the White river flood
now has passed all the important
towns on its course.
Little Rock relief committees now
have turned their attention to Georgetown and Cotuit plant where many refugees have assembled and are reported to be in need of assistance.

Paul Armstrong Dies - Suddenly at New York

New York, Aug. 30.—Paul Armstrong,
the playwright, died suddenly at his home
here tonight of heart disease. He was 46
years old.

Mr. Armstrong was one of the prominent figures of the American stage during the last ten years. He wrote a number of popular plays and collaborated in other productions.
He was born in Kidder, Mo., and for five years before he began writing plays
he was a captain on great lake steamers.

Bailey Leaves Dallas.

Dallas, Aug. 30.—United States Senator Joseph W. Bailey left today for Houston after several days'
stay in Dallas. He will remain in South Texas for several days.

Strike Snag in the Probe of Charges Against Gen. Chase

Denver, Aug. 30.—The investigation of charges against Adjutant General
John Chase and of the men who made
the charges struck a legal snag late today. The court of inquiry appointed by Governor Geo. A. Carlson after two witnesses had defied its authority and refused to answer questions, asked Attorney General Fred Farrar for an opinion as to its legal status powers.
In the meantime a former captain of the guard ordered under arrest by the court was at liberty on orders from the governor as commander-in-chief of the Colorado militia.

The trouble started when C. B. Elliott, former adjutant general of West Virginia and now reputed to be a defective in the employ of the United Mine Workers of America, refused to answer questions regarding the alleged plot of detectives and labor
leaders to wreck the state guard.

Then former Captain Philip S. Van-cise, who commanded the famous "College company" in the strike zone in 1913-14, and who later was the leader of the anti-Chase faction within the National Guard, flatly refused to answer several questions. The bailiff
was ordered to place him under arrest
but the captain refused to be arrested, saying he would appeal to the governor.

Thereupon the intractable witness and Major Edward J. Boughton of the military court raced down the marble steps of the capitol to the office of the chief executive. Spectators declared
it a dead heat.

Governor Carlson decided that Van-cise should be released and the whole legal tangle should be submitted to the attorney general.

Five Mexicans Are Killed at Eagle Mountain, Texas

El Paso, Aug. 30.—Five Mexicans
said to be cattle thieves were killed
at Eagle Mountain, about fifty miles east of Sierra Blanca, today by a posse
composed of customs river guards,
civilians and soldiers, according to authoritative advice tonight. It was said
none of the posse was injured.

Sierra Blanca, a junction point of the Texas and Pacific and the Southern Pacific railways, is about ninety miles east of here.

According to the report Mexicans
for some time have been running off
cattle and robbing isolated ranch
houses. A report here that Pascual Orozco was killed in the fight was based on a request from the authorities at Sierra Blanca that same one
he sent who could identify General
Orozco, who formerly made the neighborhood of Sierra Blanca his headquarters.

Shrapnell Makers Strike.

Dunkirk, N. Y., Aug. 30.—The machinists employed in the two shell departments at the Brooks plant of the American Locomotive company, which is turning out shrapnell for the allies,
went on strike tonight.

The men demand increases in wages.
An amicable agreement between the company and the strikers is expected within a few days.

HOPE WEATHER WILL LIMIT ADVANCE OF THE GERMAN FORCES

FROM COURLAND TO SOUTH-EASTERN GALICIA TEUTONS
ARE STILL PRESSING RUSSIANS
HARD IN COMBAT AND FOL-LOWING THEM IN RETREAT.

STORMS ARE DUE SEPT. 21

It is Recalled That Autumnal Equinox
Was Turning Point of the Napoleonic Campaign—First Warning to the Great General Was a Light Fall
of Snow.

London, Aug. 30.—While the reports
from the eastern war theatre embracing the region from Courland to Southeastern Galicia indicate that the Germans and Austrians are still pressing the Russians hard in combat or tenaciously following them in retreat,
military observers here are hoping
that the approaching equinoctial season will limit the further forward
movement of the Teutons and force
them to be content with the fruits of their past successes as the winter season falls upon them.

Both Berlin and Vienna lay emphasis on the statement that Field Marshal von Hindenburg's forces along the Dvina river in Courland have renewed their activities which were brought to a sudden halt recently with the success of the Russians in holding Riga as a menace to Von Hindenburg's rear. In southeastern Russia the Great-Litovsk region the Austrians and Germans are chiefly concerned in driving Grand Duke Nicholas' armies further into the Pri-piet marshes, evidently with the purpose of capturing the early success
of the Germans in the Mazurian lake
region of East Prussia.

To the northwest in the section
lying a short distance to the east of the East Prussian frontier, Berlin and Vienna are emphasizing the capture of the town of Lipsk, lying just to the west of the fortress of Grodno, upon which the aims of the Germans now are evidently centered.

With the beginning of the autumn
months the military observers are directing attention to the fact that the Russian equinoctial storms are due to begin about September 21. They assert that they are the danger-limit to military operations in the eastern fields. It is recalled by some of these observers that the autumnal equinox
marked the turning point in the Napoleonic campaign. The first warning was a light snowfall preceding
the equinox, but soon afterward heavy snows fell and with them came disaster
to Napoleon.

Desperate fighting continues in the Dardanelles in the vicinity of the spot where the British recently made their capture of the Ottoman forces and allied trenches with heavy allied casualties. These claims, however,
have not yet been conceded by Great Britain.

Military operations in the western field have been confined to trench
fighting on the Austro-Italian frontier. The Italians claim that their forces are slowly advancing northward.

French Official Statement.

Paris, Aug. 30.—Tonight the war office made public the following official communication:
"Artillery fighting has taken place
in Artois and in the region of Quen-neviere, where our fire has scattered
some of the enemy trenches and hit
some German encampments.

In the Ardennes our batteries have stopped several times attempted bombardments by the enemy.
"A rather violent cannonade has taken place in Lorraine toward Mon-cel Bezauges and Chazelles and also in the region of the region of Rabodeau, Launois and Lingé."

Austrian Statement.

Vienna, Aug. 30.—Via London, 7 p. m.—
The following official statement was given out by the Austrian war office tonight:
"Austrian theatre: The armies of General Palanzer, General Baltin and General Bothmer have advanced to Stripsa.
At several points the enemy attempted to arrest our pursuit, but everywhere was repulsed. Especially stubborn resistance
had to be broken at the lower Koropce
rivulet.
"The troops of General Boehm-Ermoldi
encountered strongly manned positions
east of Ziborow and on the line running from Bialy-Kamien across Toporow to Radziechow. The enemy was attacked and repulsed at several points along the front.
"In Volhynia our forces advancing toward Lutsk gained ground. Swinichuk and other places stubbornly defended by the enemy were taken.
"Our Austro-Hungarian troops, fighting in the Belorussian region, defeated the Russians near Serezhewo and are pursuing them toward Pruzhany.
"Italian war theatre: Yesterday the enemy mounted an artillery fire of intermittent strength along the fronts in the coastal region. Hostile attacks against several different points were repulsed. In the Carinthian and Tyrolen frontier districts the situation is unchanged."

Russia Accepts the Changes in Embargo Against the U. S.

Washington, Aug. 30.—Final acceptance by Russia of the agreement for modifying the Russian embargo
against exports to the United States
was communicated to the state department today.

President Picks Polk for Counselor of the State Department

Corporation Counsel Frank Lyon
Polk, the prospective counselor of the state department at Washington will bring to the post in Washington an expert knowledge and a wide experience in law. He is the son of Dr.
Wm. Medill Polk, dean of the Cornell medicine school, grandson of the Confederate bishop general, Leon-idas Polk, and the grand nephew of President James K. Polk. Mr. Polk was born in New York in 1871 and was graduated from Yale in 1894. He studied law at Columbia law school,
from which he was graduated in 1897.
Mr. Polk went to the Spanish war
with Troop A and became assistant quartermaster under General Ernst,
with the rank of captain. Mr. Polk
has long been a close friend of Mayor Mitchell and was sitting beside him in an automobile outside city hall on the afternoon of April 17, 1914, when a grievous crash of the early success
of the Germans in the Mazurian lake
region of East Prussia.

English Labor Will Not Affiliate With the German Unions

London, Aug. 30.—The National Union of Paper Workers has taken the initiative among British trades unions in refusing to maintain relations with German and Austrian industrial federations. The union was taken in connection with an invitation to a conference in Switzerland with the object of reviving the international organizations of trades unions.
"Executive committee of the paper workers'
union, in replying to the invitation,
said the organization had decided that it would never again agree to sit in conference with representatives of a nation which applied the wholesale murder of 1400 unarmed men, women and children when the Lusitania was sunk without a moment's warning.
The executives of the union propose
the calling of a conference in London
or Paris for the constitution of a new international secretariat from interests
in which German and Austrian organizations shall be excluded."

Negro Convict Pleads Guilty of Killing His Benefactress

Murphyboro, Ill., Aug. 30.—Joe Deberry, the negro who killed his benefactress, Mrs. J. H. Martin, in her home on July 30, was indicted here
today, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to death. The entire proceedings occupied less than six hours.
Deberry was sentenced to be hanged
October 16.
Crowds thronged the court room
today and hundreds of persons were gathered on the streets. There were rumorings of possible mob violence
but the presence of three companies of Illinois National Guard served to prevent violence.

Would Increase Tuition.

Berkeley, Cal., Aug. 30.—Good stiff tuition fees instead of free education
at state universities were suggested rather than advocated by Dr. Benjamin Ide Wheeler, president of the University of California, in an address
here today at the twentieth annual session of the National Association of State Universities.

Believe Mexican Uprising Was Planned at San Antonio

San Antonio, Aug. 30.—With the arrest of twenty-six Mexicans, twenty-three of whom were detained this afternoon, Chief of Police Lancaster and federal authorities believe a plan to incite the Mexican population of San Antonio to defiance has been broken.
The prisoners, according to Chief Lancaster, are all followers of the plan of San Diego, an "extraneous" matter of the Mexican revolution. The uprisings in the lower Rio Grande valley caused the progress to go amiss, and at the same time federal officials were put on their guard.
Three of the leaders were arrested Sunday night while addressing a crowd of 1000 Mexicans on the market plaza. Their remarks were of an inflammatory nature
and were calculated to arouse the poorer
class of Mexicans to deeds of violence.
Since the disturbances in the Brownsville
territory special agents of the United States department of justice and police officials have been keeping a close watch to prevent a possible uprising in San Antonio. They had learned that agitators were here in great strength.
But until Sunday night there had been no open attempt to encourage disorders.

PLAN CONFERENCE REGARDLESS OF THE STAND OF CARRANZA

IS STATED AUTHORITATIVELY THAT THE NEXT STEP IN THE
PAN-AMERICAN PROGRAM FOR RESTORING PEACE IN MEXICO
WILL BE CARRIED OUT SOON.

ZAPATA'S REPLY IS RECEIVED

Villa Chiefs Have All Decided to Enter Into Proposals and This Assures Meeting of Faction Leaders
Will Be Held—Attack on Monterrey Begins.

Washington, Aug. 30.—It was stated
authoritatively tonight that the next step in the Pan-American program for restoration of peace in Mexico was under consideration and would be taken in the near future, regardless of what might be the nature of General Carranza's belated reply to the offer of Secretary Lansing and Latin-American diplomats to arrange for a conference of Mexican military and political leaders. No inkling was given, however, of what form this next development would take.

Responses from General Zapata and his military advisers reached the state department today, accepting the offer of the Pan-American conference. With the receipt of these replies Villa adherents in Washington whose leaders already have responded favorably, asserted that a peace convention to form
a new provisional government in Mexico was assured even if Carranza should refuse to participate. Administration officials heard of this announcement with interest, but said no
arrangements for such a conference
were in prospect.

General Carranza's local agents declared today that they expected the
"first chief" reply within a few days
at the latest. They think it will come as soon as Carranza has completed the installation of his government in Mexico City.
Reports to the state department
from Torreón late in the day said the Villa forces had begun an attack upon Monterrey, the capital of Nuevo Leon,
which is in possession of Carranza troops under General Trevino. The message said, however, fighting was in progress but gave no details.

Tonight General Villa is declared to have headed a column of reinforcements which hastened to the vicinity of Monterrey from Torreón to the aid
of General Raul Madero, in command of the attacking forces.
Major General Scott, chief of staff
of the army, who has returned to Washington from the border, where he undertook negotiations with the Mexican leaders for the state department,
will confer with Secretary Lansing tomorrow.

Americans Leave Hermosillo.

Guaymas, Sonora, by Radio to San Diego, Aug. 30.—Many Americans
are reported to have left the district of Hermosillo, capital of Sonora, because they feared the attacks of Indians. Some of these have come here where they have been by boat to the mouth of the Colorado river at the head of the Gulf of California. Others have gone by wagon from Magdalena,
Sonora, to the border.

Maytorena to Relinquish Office.

Nogales, Ariz., Aug. 30.—Jose May-torena, Villa chief in Sonora, will relinquish
the office of governor of Sonora, Sept. 15,
according to announcement from his office in Nogales, Sonora, today. Albert Wells, heard his remarks in Maytor-ena's cabinet, will become governor, while General Felipe Angeles, who is reported to be on his way from Chihuahua at the head of a state constabulary in Maytor-ena's stead, will assume the military chieftainship on behalf of Villa in the states of Sonora and Sinaloa.

Carranza Forces at Santa Rosalia.

La Paz, Lower California, Aug. 30.—
(By Radio to San Diego, Cal.)—A Carranza expedition which left here recently by the steamer Pacific, and which has reached Santa Rosalia,
a large mining town where there are many French interests, and to have occupied the district.

ROOT CONDEMNNS THE RULE OF "BOSSSES"

"INVISIBLE GOVERNMENT," HE SAYS, WOULD BE CORRECTED BY THE SHORT BALLOT.

PEOPLE RESENT THE SYSTEM

New York Has Been Dominated, Says Speaker, for Forty Years by Clique Method.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 30.—From the floor of the constitutional convention today President Elihu Root condemned the system of "bossism" and "invisible government" which he said to his knowledge has dominated New York for forty years, and pleaded that the people be armed with the short ballot that they may establish their own rule. It is all wrong, he declared, that any other rule should exist.

"This domination," Mr. Root declared in part, "has caused a deep and sullen and long continued resentment among the people at being governed by men not of their choosing. They demand a change. The short ballot plan is a solution or at least it may be the first step that will work out a solution."

"When I go back home, as I am about to do, I mean to tell the people I mean to tell them that I can say I have not failed to speak and to act in accordance with the lessons that I learned there from the God of my fathers."

Mr. Root was speaking particularly in behalf of the short ballot and departmental reorganization proposal. It has had the support of the so-called "federal crowd" in the convention but has been opposed by members of the "old guard." Among those who have supported it are Mr. Root, George W. Wickersham, Henry L. Stinson and Frederick C. Langer, the republican state chairman, Lemuel Eli Quigg, Ray B. Smith and Edgar T. Brackett, who long have fought the "regulars" in the state, opposed it.

After discussing the proposal specifically Mr. Root said:

"We talk about the government of the constitution. What is the government of this state? What has it been doing during the forty years of my acquaintance with it? The government of the constitution? Oh, no, no, no, half the time or half way. When I ask what did the people find wrong in our state government my mind goes back to those periodic fits of public rage in which the people arose and tore down the political leader first of one party and then of the other party."

"I am talking about the system. From the days of Fenton, from the days of David L. Platt down to the present time the government of the state has presented two different lines of activity, one of the constitutional and statutory offices of the state and the other of the party leaders—they call them party bosses."

"They are called the system—the 'invisible government.' For I don't remember how many years, Mr. Comstock, the ruler in this state; the governor did not count; and in a great outburst of public rage he was pulled down."

"Then Mr. Platt ruled the state for nearly twenty years. And the capital was not here; it was at 49 Broadway with Mr. Platt and his lieutenants."

"The party leader is selected by no one, accountable to no one. Bound by no oath of office; removable by no one."

"Both parties are alike. All parties are alike. The system extends through all."

"What the unerring instinct of the democracy of our state has seen in this government is that a different standard of morality is applied to the conduct of affairs of state than that which is applied in private affairs."

"I deny that we cannot change it."

"We can take this one step toward not robbing the people of their part in government, but toward robbing an irresponsible minority of its indefensible and unjust and undemocratic control of government and restoring it to the people to be exercised by the men of their choice and their control."

Learn More Details of Operations of John W. Barnhardt

St. Louis, Aug. 30.—Details of the alleged fraudulent realty transactions of John W. Barnhardt, who the police operated under the names of Adler, Kline, and other aliases, are being poured into police headquarters here tonight while Barnhardt, until recently bank director and politician of Forest City, Arkansas, awaited extradition to Waukesha, Wis., on charges of first degree forgery and attempted murder.

Sheriff Sleep and District Attorney Evans of Waukesha arrived tonight to take Barnhardt back to the jail from which he escaped several weeks ago. Requisition papers from the governor of Wisconsin are due here tomorrow.

Messages describing a widespread traffic in forged warranty deeds and deeds of trust attributed to Barnhardt were received from Kansas City, Omaha, Fremont, Nebraska; Racine, Wis.; Kalamazoo, Mich.; Council Bluffs, Iowa; Champaign, Quincy and Danville, Ill. and Easton.

Barnhardt's chief concern tonight seemed to be over the welfare of his wife rather than the charges against him. It was his desire to see her which led to his arrest and the disclosure of his real identity last night.

GERMANY REPLES TO SIR EDWARD GREY

OFFICIAL STATEMENT CARRIED IN BERLIN PAPER ON BELGIAN NEUTRALITY

Text of German Ambassador's Report of Conference With Grey Is Made Public.

Berlin, Aug. 30, by Wireless to Sayville, N. Y.—The North German Gazette published an official reply to the recent statement by Sir Edward Grey, the British secretary for foreign affairs, with relation to the speech of Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg in the reichstag. The Overseas News Agency summarizes the reply in the Gazette as follows:

"At the beginning the article alludes to the fact that Sir Edward Grey diplomatically ignored the valuable material contained in reports from Belgian ministers at various European capitals prior to the war, recently published in Germany, but goes exhaustively into the subject of threats against Belgian neutrality. The chancellor never said that Belgium sold her neutrality to England, but asserted that it had been proved by documents that Belgium had fostered British military plans, thus herself violating her neutrality."

Besides, it is added, the excitement over the violations of a 75-year-old treaty made for entirely different purposes was ridiculous for a country which unconsciously disregarded a promise given twenty-five years ago to all Europe and which continuously supported French obligations accepted in 1911 regarding Morocco.

The Overseas agency here takes up the assertion of Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg in his recent reichstag speech, that Sir Edward Grey had said to the German ambassador as he was taking leave of him after the outbreak of the war that it might be possible England could be of more use by entering the conflict than if she had remained neutral.

It notes the Gazette's assertion that Sir Edward Grey had denied having made such remarks as the German chancellor, but in his reichstag address had interpreted as meaning that Sir Edward would be able to aid Germany against Russia.

The text of the memorandum in which Prince Lichnowsky, the German ambassador in London, recorded the part in question of his interview with the British secretary for foreign affairs is reproduced from the newspaper by the Overseas agency as follows:

"Sir Edward Grey sent word he would like to speak to me at home before my departure and bid me to call; also that he had a confidential communication to make that possibly would be valuable in the future. I answered that in view of the turn affairs had taken it would be unwise for me to greet him again, but I yielded to his request, as I did not wish to miss an opportunity that might be of importance to the future of both nations."

"Sir Edward was visibly moved as he greeted me. He said the decision he had made to take was the gravest of his entire life and that he was considering that participation in the war would injure England little more than England as a participating power. He was in a better position to throw her balance into the balance than he was able at any time to threaten to withdraw from the conflict."

"The relations of recognized international treaties guaranteed by England, he said, made it impossible for her to stand aside. He regarded it as an expedient to consider the suggestion of the imperial chancellor and bearing in mind the British standpoint on such a transaction impressed him as imprudent. He did not enter into negotiations with a passive course, but he would stress upon the Belgian question without adding, as he did in his speech in the house of commons, that England could not look on while Germany endeavored to reduce not only France but also Belgium and Holland to a state of dependency."

Communication to Prince Lichnowsky is made public.

The confidential communication was to the effect that should events not take the turn anticipated by the German military, or if the British government for other reasons to bring the war to a speedy end, he always would be prepared, if he remained in the position of mediator and peace, to undertake the task of mediation and peace to Germany. He had not the slightest intention of restoring Germany to its conditions and put an end to unspeakable misery for the civilized world. Prince Lichnowsky replied that the role of an arbitrator would be easier for him than that of a mediator, and that he would be prepared to undertake the task of mediation and peace to Germany. He had not the slightest intention of restoring Germany to its conditions and put an end to unspeakable misery for the civilized world.

The Overseas agency, in concluding its summary of the North German Gazette's reply says:

"If Sir Edward Grey had assented to the acceptance of the proposals for a conference, he would have maintained peace."

Germany had quietly looked on while Russia gathered millions of soldiers at the frontier. Germany today would look as East Prussia did after the Russian invasion and the British blockade had read the report of the British ambassador at St. Petersburg that Russia would not enter a conflict war would have been avoided of being precipitated by the promise of support."

"Germany fights not for supremacy, as Sir Edward said, but for liberation of Europe from the brutal supremacy that England had maintained over it by her powerful fleet and with her policy of dividing the European powers into two hostile parts, backing each other in the interest of Great Britain and permitting that nation to throw her weight where it best served her egoistic ambitions."

Veterinarians Meet.

Oakland, Cal., Aug. 30.—The American Veterinary Medical association opened its fifty-first annual convention here today and plunged at once into discussion of ravages of the foot and mouth disease in the past year.

Dr. John E. Mohler, assistant chief of the federal bureau of animal industry, said attacks on the bureau for its efforts to stamp out the disease resembled crusades years ago against men who fought tuberculosis.

"Were these criticisms to be heeded," he said, "foot and mouth disease would unquestionably be saddled upon the country tomorrow as tuberculosis is today." He said one out of every six cases of foot and mouth infection were brought about by virus carried upon the shoes, clothing and bodies of persons.

"That this disease may be controlled admits of no argument."

LIVING 100 YEARS GETTING COMMON

Many Are Now Doing It—One Factor Is Helping Prolong Life.

Living to be one hundred years old is no longer a rare feat. In the south while the average length of life falls less than fifty years, still there are many who manage to get past the century line. Newspapers nowadays contain frequent accounts of people who die beyond the age of one hundred. Real old people are becoming more numerous than they were a generation ago. This is due mainly to advancement in surgery and medicine and to a general knowledge of the laws of life. Still the average score and ten is far beyond the average.

One factor that is doing much to prolong human life is the widespread use of the neutral earth product known as Vitalitas. It contains earth chemicals and forces that are essential to vigorous health and that do much to overcome weakness and to keep the system free of bodily poisons. It cleanses and assists in the creation of vital forces throughout the body.

Derangements of stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels and blood, which are the most harmful to life and overcome to a greater or less degree by Vitalitas. It is beyond doubt Nature's most valuable tonic and corrective. It is pleasant, free of harmful ingredients and a delicate invalid or child may take it.

German Prize Court Passes on Cases of Contraband Vessels

London, Aug. 30.—The British foreign office issued the following statement tonight:

"Judgments recently have been delivered by the German prize court at Hamburg in the cases of the steamships Maria and Batavier V. The Batavier V, bound for London, was captured in the North Sea on March 18 and taken to Zebrugge on suspicion of carrying contraband goods."

Four Witnesses in Mrs. Hamlin Case Are Put on Stand

Jackson, Ky., Aug. 30.—After four witnesses had testified for the state today the preliminary hearing in the case of Mrs. Hamlin, daughter-in-law of a former attorney general of Illinois, who is charged with having poisoned Mrs. Polly Davis, a wealthy widow, was postponed until noon tomorrow.

Mrs. Hamlin is also charged with having forged a will which purported leaving her $40,000 from the estate left by Mrs. Davis.

The four witnesses were Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Moses, Dr. John Hobbs and Christie Clemmons, all of whom reside at Portsmouth, this county, where Mrs. Davis lived. Mr. and Mrs. Moses ran a boarding house where they said Mrs. Hamlin stayed. According to their testimony Mrs. Hamlin first came to Portsmouth on June 19 and left on June 20. Mrs. Hamlin returned to Portsmouth again on July 26, three weeks after the death of Mrs. Davis. On her first appearance in Portsmouth Mrs. Hamlin claimed she lived in Perry county, Kentucky, and that her mother was a cousin of Mrs. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Moses testified further that Mrs. Hamlin visited Mrs. Davis every day while she was alive and that after Mrs. Hamlin's departure on June 20 they found poison in a vase left by her at the boarding house. Mr. and Mrs. Moses testified Mrs. Hamlin claimed to have found the will shortly after her return to Portsmouth on July 26 and that she offered Mrs. Moses $1000 if she would sign the will as a witness. The will, they said, had only one signature affixed to it, that being the name of Mrs. Clara Meyers of Charleston, West Virginia.

Dr. Hobbs described the symptoms of the last illness of Mrs. Davis and claimed that her death was due to poisoning.

Christie Clemmons testified that she worked for Mrs. Davis and that the latter was afraid of Mrs. Hamlin.

Mrs. Meyers, who is alleged to have signed her name to the will and who is held in connection with the case, is expected to testify tomorrow. Friends of Mrs. Hamlin are also expected to take the witness stand.

Germany Is Buying Munitions in the United States

Chicago, Aug. 30.—George M. Getschow, secretary of Phillips, Getschow & company, is quoted in the Daily News today as stating that he is a stockholder in a firm which is making 100,000 six-inch shells for the United States army, and that the German government is purchasing munitions of war in the American market.

"I have seen some of the German contracts," continued Mr. Getschow. "The Germans are a buyer is common knowledge among manufacturers. Most of the shipments to Germany are made in Norwegian and Danish steamers."

"The effect of these decisions appears to be to abolish in practice the distinction of absolute and conditional contraband of war."

German Submarine Pursues Transport

Baltimore, Aug. 30.—The pursuit of a British transport by a German submarine while the transport was endeavoring to hit the Pennsylvania coast was witnessed by Captain Mikelsen of the Danish steamship Olof, which arrived tonight from Bristol, Eng.

Captain Mikelsen said that on August 15, the day after the Olof left Bristol, the transport was seen going at a high rate of speed and from time to time firing at the periscope of the submarine. The distance between vessels was less than 100 yards and between short intervals the submarine would rise to the surface, exposing its periscope and dive again to escape the fire from the transport.

"I could not make out the name on the transport on account of the darkness," said Captain Mikelsen, "but I watched the band for some time and could see the submarine was making a determined effort to get into a position to launch a torpedo. Whether it was successful, I do not know for when last seen the race was being continued. The submarine was a fast one and the transport was only holding its own."

A wireless dispatch from Berlin last Sunday said that passengers on the Holland-American steamer Ryndam arriving at Rotterdam from New York, had reported that a British transport with 2000 Canadian soldiers aboard was torpedoed off the Solly Islands August 15 and that about 1000 of the men on board had been saved. The Canadian government denied a Canadian ship had been torpedoed.

The Solly Islands lie some 170 miles from Bristol.

Debris Believed to Be from Marowijne

New Orleans, Aug. 30.—Wreckage picked up in the Gulf of Mexico and brought to port tonight by the United Fruit liner Suriname may prove to be debris from the recent gulf storm.

Several pieces of timber, apparently from the superstructure of a steamer, a pair of cabinet drawers, a Marowijne known to have carried, and an engine gasoline drum were among the objects found.

The drum bears the address of a concern in Belize, British Honduras, from which port the Marowijne sailed for New Orleans. Comparison of the individual numbers of the drum will be made with numbers of drums aboard when the vessel wrecked, during an examination of the wreckage to be made by officials of the company tomorrow.

On the 28th Cima Cista was attacked by our troops and notwithstanding the fire from the enemy artillery, we conquered and retained."

"At first the ministers were opposed to the plan but now they have mollified their views and at a conference yesterday between the duma leaders and M. Kriyoshin, minister of agriculture (who had been mentioned as a possible successor to M. Goremykin as premier), and Prince Czerbatoff, head of the interior, a tentative list of the new popular members of the cabinet was drawn up."

COTTON CONVENTION BELOW THAT OF JULY

DROUGHT FOLLOWED BY EXCESSIVE RAINS CAUSES UNUSUAL DETERIORATION.

Unofficial Calculations Place Crop at 11,817,235, as Compared With 16,135,930 Last Year.

Washington, Aug. 30.—Drought, followed by excessive rains in the cotton belt during August caused deterioration slightly more than the August average to the growing cotton crop. The department of agriculture today announced the condition as 69.2 per cent of a normal. That is 6.1 per cent below the July condition.

Unofficial calculations based on government averages for yield, condition and acreage, place the crop at 11,817,235 equivalent 500-pound bales, against 16,135,930 last year.

While no official statement explanatory of the cotton figures was forthcoming from the department of agriculture, Leon M. Estabrook, chief of the bureau of crop estimates, announced unofficially that the report indicated a yield this season of approximately 11,800,000 bales of cotton, as compared with an actual production of 16,135,930 bales last year.

"The condition of 69.2 estimated today as compared with 75.3 on July 25, a month ago," Mr. Estabrook explained, "is a trifle more of a decline than is normal. If the figures had been the same in today's estimate as on July 25 there would be an actual increase. There is always a decline between the July and August estimates. The figures for the yield of approximately 11,800,000 bales, which is slightly less than the forecast of last month. The actual output for the 1914 season, as shown by the census figures, was 16,135,930. There is an estimated decrease in acreage of 15 per cent due to the collapse of the market in the abnormal conditions respecting cotton during the past year. The drop in condition percentage from 75.3 on July 25 to 69.2 per cent in August is due to the unfavorable weather during the last month and the reduction of about 40 per cent in the market of fertilizer used in the cotton fields."

A crop slightly under 12,000,000 bales was forecast by the crop reporting board from the July 25 condition. The bureau of crop estimates announced that a condition of 100 on August 25 would be equivalent to a yield of 25.9 pounds to the acre. The area planted this year has been officially reported as 31,335,000 acres.

Weather conditions for the crop had not been very favorable during the month. Hot and generally continued dry weather greatly retarded growth over many portions of the belt during the first week but little progress was possible except over the northern portion where local rains and moderate warmth favored satisfactory growth. During the early part of the month drought continued very generally in Texas and was becoming severe over large areas.

Continued dry weather over the greater part of the more important producing states prevented satisfactory growth during the second week of the month and the crop very generally deteriorated. Shedding was reported in many sections and bolls were opening prematurely in districts where the drought prevailed. Insect pests were reported generally less active than usual.

Deterioration due to adverse weather during the early weeks of the month still needed in a greater part of the central and eastern portions of the belt during the latter part of the month and the crop responded to the more favorable condition. Rain was reported in a greater part of Mississippi and in some portions of Alabama. In the western part of the belt good growing conditions prevailed except in Texas, where the drought continued over much of the state until the close of the week when the West Indian storm brought considerable rain over the eastern and coast districts.

Comparisons of conditions by states follow:

State	1915	1914	1913
Virginia	85	79	88
North Carolina	76	78	82
South Carolina	71	72	77
Georgia	69	76	81

Straight Hair Made Curly While You Sleep

By an entirely new and harmless method, the straightest hair can now be made beautifully curly while you sleep. Not that the sleeping has anything to do with it, except to prevent loss of any of your precious time while the process is being applied. You simply apply a little liquid salmerine to the hair, using a clean tooth brush for the purpose. This it seems has the property of causing the hair to dry with a delightful wavy effect, as will be quite apparent in the morning.

The effect lasts considerably longer than where a hot iron is used, and the curliness appears far more natural. If you'll get a few ounces of the liquid salmerine from your druggist you will have enough to keep the hair in curl for many weeks. This by the way is excellent also as a dressing for the hair, keeping it bright and lustrous. It is neither sticky nor greasy.

HICKS TELLS ABOUT LOS ANGELES MEETING

DELEGATE FROM WACO TO THE TYPOGRAPHICAL CONVENTION RETURNS FROM CALIFORNIA.

Resolutions Adopted Indorsing National Administration—Per Capita Tax Is Increased.

Louis H. Hicks has just returned from Los Angeles, Cal., where he represented Waco Typographical Union No. 188 at the sixty-first annual convention of the International Typographical union, held in that city August 9 to 14. He also visited the two expositions, at San Diego and San Francisco, August 15 and 16, the city of the International Typographical Union Day at the San Francisco exposition, while a like day was observed on August 16 at the San Diego fair. The attendance at the former exposition, he said, is now about 20,000 a day greater than a few weeks ago, and officials expect this to greatly increase from now on.

"The spirit of cordiality shown by Los Angeles toward the printers was very evident," Mr. Hicks said, "and justifies the belief that the opposition to trades unionism, once so active in that city, is dying out." One of the features of entertainment by the city was the famous electrical parade, given in honor of the delegates and visitors. The convention was addressed in words of welcome by Mayor Charles E. Sebastian, as well as a representative of the Chamber of Commerce of Los Angeles.

The first act of the convention was to adopt strong resolutions abhorring the present European war, the greater burden of which is borne by the toilers, both in its toll of death and suffering and in property destruction. The resolution also indorsed the course followed by President Wilson in his endeavor not only to preserve and promote peace in this hemisphere, but in his offer of mediation to the nations at war.

One of the important actions of the convention was to raise the per capita tax of members of the union by a month, the increase to be applied to the Union Printers' Home at Colorado Springs, to which it is proposed to build a $15,000 addition soon. This institution is maintained by the union for its sick and aged members. At present there are about 220 inmates, a majority of whom are tubercular patients.

Another law enacted by the convention increases the term of printer's apprenticeship from four to five years, and provides a more careful guardianship.

Resolutions were adopted urging state legislatures to enact laws providing out-of-work insurance for legitimate unemployment, and an investigation will be made to determine the feasibility of the union's providing benefits for sick members and for those out of work.

A distinct feature of the convention was the address of Secretary of Labor Wilson, who spoke in emphatic terms of indorsement of the organized workers, saying: "The great trade union movement has done and is doing a great deal toward the solution of the problem of production. Every improvement that has been brought about has been brought about by the continuous struggle of the workers. A non-unionist who accepts the shorter hours, the higher wages, the better sanitary conditions, the improved safety appliances, without contributing his share of finances, of time, of energy, of intelligence toward bringing it about and maintaining those conditions is accepting something for nothing. That is not my idea of honesty."

The 1915 convention of the union will be held in Baltimore.

Maennerchor Hall Will Be Dedicated on September 14

The handsome new building of the Maennerchor club, Fourteenth and Main streets, was designed by Edward H. Reed, architect, and erected by Smith & Petzold, general contractors. The Maennerchor building committee consists of W. Haubold, E. V. J. Geisler, E. W. Anthos, M. Hill, W. F. Quebe and O. Oberlander.

Being distinctly a singing society, the Maennerchor has always been more or less handicapped by not having a good place for their entertainments. In the new building a fine auditorium has been placed on the second floor, in which the entertainments of the club will be held.

B. F. Durff's Barn Damaged by Fire

The barn of B. F. Durff, 920 Pecor street, was badly damaged by fire at 10:50 last night. Damage to the building is estimated at $100, to the feed contained in it at $25. The origin of the fire is unknown. An alarm was turned in from Elm and Fort at 9:55 last night, but it turned out to be a mistake.

Fire Marshal Joe Carlisle wishes to caution all garages to have fire extinguishers handy and convenient for themselves and customers, and to take particular care not to overflow gasoline tanks.

HOLDING OUR EXPORT TRADE.

Many Americans, contemplating the fact that for the first time in history the exports of this country lead the world in volume, have become persuaded that a long period of unprecedented prosperity has dawned upon this country as a result of the European war, and all that we will have to do is to take care of the business that will come to us unsolicited. And while we are optimistic, and hope for a continuation of the large export business, which reached a total of $2,758,600,000 during the last fiscal year, we are persuaded that we must observe caution in our business methods and be prepared for an inevitable readjustment following the close of the European war.

All guesses as to the termination of the present conflict are problematical, as a matter of course, but with a modified attitude toward this country among many of the leading counselors of Germany, the demand of the socialists and other factors in several of the countries that the devastation wrought by the war shall cease, together with the apparent exhaustion of credit in many of the countries of Europe it begins to appear that the end may not be as far away as we had thought it might be a few weeks ago. In the event of an early close of the European war we believe the chances for the continuation of a large demand for American-made goods will be larger than if the conflict should continue another year, for the resources of the contending countries will not be so nearly exhausted and they will be better able to pay for those things from this country which they will naturally need.

But in the meantime, our manufacturers and other business interests should not overdo their preparations in anticipation of the continued demands for the same character of goods which we are shipping to Europe in such large quantities at present. The war can not last interminably, and there is bound to be an adjustment to those conditions that will prevail when the war is ended. What those conditions will be and what the character of the readjustment that must follow, no one can foretell.

But we will make a great mistake if we put our sole dependence for the future upon our export trade with Europe. We can not fail to recognize that all of the countries participating in the war have been greatly crippled by it and while their consuming powers may be as great along certain lines as before the war, their credit will be greatly impaired. What we need to do is to pay more attention to the development of new trade with the South American countries and with the Orient. These countries will trade with us if we will go after their trade and furnish them with what they want and at the prices and in the manner they want it.

To accomplish the largest results in the building up of this trade, however, we need to export our goods in American owned ships. We are reminded more forcibly than ever before of the need for an adequate American merchant marine and we can never hope to hold our present high position as an exporting nation unless we establish a merchant marine. Our present position in the export business is a result of the European war. If we hold that position it will be a result of our diligence and foresight in taking advantage of the best opportunity that we have ever been afforded for building up our trade in a way that it can not be taken from us.

THE SULPHUR SPRINGS LYNCHING.

Our contention that one of the worst effects of a lynching, if not the worst, consists in the disregard that it creates for the law and the tendency it has to induce people elsewhere to follow the same course under a similar provocation, appears to be abundantly justified in the action of the mob at Sulphur Springs in burning two negroes after they had already been captured, one of them killed and the other one mortally wounded, Sunday afternoon.

In killing one of the officers and fatally wounding the other, when no attempt at rough play had been made by the officers, the offending blacks forfeited their own lives and the posse of officers and citizens who later surrounded the outlaws were perfectly within their rights in shooting down the blacks if it required this to capture them, as, from all appearances, it did.

But having killed one of the negroes and so wounded the other that he would have very likely died, members of the posse should have been content to have ended their efforts to avenge the death and the mortal wounding of the officers early in the day. Had the wounded negro lived he would have answered the demands of the law, for it is a well established custom in this state that a negro who assaults a white person, especially without provocation, is given no benefit of the doubt, and has to shoulder the full penalty of the law. Had the posse been content to have rested with the shooting, there would have been only commendation for its effective work in capturing a couple of desperadoes who did not deserve to live and longer molest the peace of the community and threaten the lives of its officers.

And possibly the posse was content with its work and the disgraceful part lies in the conduct of the mob which waited in the city, and which in the frenzy into which it had permitted itself to be worked, was not satisfied with taking a life for a life, but, stifling all its finer sensibilities, demanded that brutality be meted out not only to the mortally wounded negro but to the body of his dead companion as well. A more gruesome, disgraceful spectacle it would be hard to conceive.

The ends of justice had already been met. The further torture of the negro who had only a spark of life remaining was wholly uncalled for, while the burning of the body of the negro who had been killed on the spot was a response to the dictates of a bunch of otherwise good people, who, under the influence of the mob spirit, had permitted their lowest passions to be aroused and who had, for the moment, relegated self-control and established only animal passion in its stead.

There was less provocation for this burning of the negroes, in our estimation, than for any of the numerous lynchings that have occurred within this state—and that to the despoliation of its good name—during the past ten or fifteen years.

HARDING ON GERMAN COTTON DEMAND.

Mr. W. P. G. Harding, the member of the federal reserve board through whom southern cotton questions are handled, has made some very sensible observations on the effect of the embargo placed by Great Britain on the shipment of cotton to the central European powers, declares the Dallas Times-Herald.

He points out that Germany will buy American cotton in spite of the fact that the embargo will prevent her from getting immediate delivery. The price of cotton is low. When the war ends and the normal European demand revives the price may be expected to rise. Good business judgment on the part of German manufacturers would dictate that they buy cotton now and hold it in American warehouses until the seas are again open for shipping it to Germany rather than that they wait until the war is over and buy it at an increased price.

If good business judgment dictates that this be done, we may count on it that it is just what the German manufacturers will do. Their worst detractors have never accused them of lack of good business judgment. The only reason why they should not do so, Mr. Harding suggests, they will do so on account of lack of the necessary capital. But German manufacturers are evidently doing a very small volume of business at present, and their reserves of free capital should be high. German banks for the same reason should have plenty of money available for loans. There should therefore be no difficulty in financing the purchase of much American cotton along the lines that Mr. Harding speaks of.

MARRIAGE AND THE RIGHTS OF THE CHILD.

In the consideration of marriage, as of everything else, there are two extremes. One of them is represented by the eugenists who would make the physical fitness of the prospective husband and wife the sole consideration, eliminating the element of love and the law of natural attraction, while the other would permit blind love to be the total consideration, ignoring the possible physical unfitness of one or both parties to the matrimonial contract.

Marriage without love is as unthinkable in the eyes of nature as it is unbearable to those who are so unfortunate as to engage in it. But marriage where there is physical or mental unfitness for the assumption of this responsibility not only tends to kill the love that existed previous to the marriage, but brings misery and distress not alone to the parties to the marriage, but to the offspring of the marriage, or possibly makes the advent of offspring impossible.

Time was, and not so very long ago, when subjects of this character could not be discussed on the platform or in the press, but our people are becoming wiser and are seeking fuller information upon this and similar subjects in the hope that the blunders of the past may be avoided and a better and healthier race of people produced. A very practical discussion of the subject is contained in the following excerpt from an article on "Health and Hygiene for the Child," by Anna Steese Richardson, in the September Pictorial Review:

"The gravest day in the life-history of any child is that on which the father asks the mother to marry him. For in that significant moment when the woman says 'Yes,' the future of the unborn child is fixed.

"I love you," cries the eager wooer.

"I love you," whispers she who has been won.

"We will be happy—happy always," they murmur, as lips meet lips in the first, unforgettable kiss.

"And out in the shadowy unknown, we wealth-like figures pause, with hands outstretched, saying, 'But what of us—your children-to-be? Will you give us health? Will you make us welcome? Will we draw you more closely together or will we come between you? Will you love us and make us happy?'"

"Those lovers who hear above the throbbing of their own hearts and the pulsing of passion in their veins this cry of the unborn, see in marriage their right to parenthood with all its responsibilities and its joys. Those who are deaf to pleading voices see in marriage only a means to satisfy desire, and regard parenthood as its penalty, not its privilege.

"For generations, society, the state, the medical profession and individual parents have been fighting to reduce infant mortality and to raise, by scientific means, the standard of child-health. Surveys have been made, societies for alleviating the condition of unfortunate children have been formed, innumerable volumes on child-health and hygiene have been written, and thousands of public-health lecturers have addressed mothers.

"With what result?

"The alleviation of suffering among children, the reduction of defects, and the realization that these remedial efforts would be unnecessary if children were well born.

"Normal, healthy, happy children are not accidents. They are the natural result of wise mating. The most scientific care in the nursery, the most exorbitant fees paid to specialists for children, lifelong devotion and prayers, increasing cannot undo the mischief wrought by ill-advised, thoughtless marriage. In this are of preventive measures, the fundamental prophylactic factor in child-raising is the wise selection of parents."

Berkeley, Cal., which is a university town, has passed an ordinance that all of its policemen shall attend the University of California and make a study of mental diseases as related to criminology. That may be all right but a man who is capable of masterminding such subjects is capable of a higher position than that of policeman.

Our friend Teddy is just dying for a fight and is trying to draw Mr. Wilson into one. Now we have an idea that while Mr. Wilson is still pursuing his watchful waiting policy he will give Teddy the fight of his life in 1916 if Teddy happens to get into the ring, as he is seeking very diligently at this time to do.

If you haven't already taken your vacation this summer and still contemplate camping out for a season this warning from the United States public health service might be of interest: "Beware of the farmer's corn and cucumbers, eat sparingly of the concoctions to which you are unaccustomed and glance at the well of boyhood days only with suspicion. Don't allow the weather or the children to annoy you, rest as well as you can, show the youngsters what father can do when he has the proper environment and imagine what a wonderful time you are having."

Favor Resumption Iron Industry. AUSTIN, Aug. 30.—A petition was received from citizens of Palestine and Rusk counties for the resumption of the penitentiary investigating committee. Included in its report a recommendation that the iron industry at Ausk penitentiary be resumed. When the hearing was concluded Senators Harley, chairman of the committee, Breckford, vice chairman, and King, the only members of the committee present, but enough to constitute a quorum, expressed themselves as being in favor of a resumption of the iron industry. It appears that the committee will recommend that the iron industry at Ausk be resumed. The operation, however, may not be under the auspices of the prison commission, but under competent persons, backed with ample finances by the state.

Warehouse Test Begins. AUSTIN, Aug. 30.—Attacking the constitutionality of that provision of the permanent warehouse law which requires ginners to take three samples of each bale of cotton ginned, Dalbey White of Tyler, as a ginner, today filed an application for a writ of habeas corpus in the court of criminal appeals. White was arrested charged with violating the law and he called and refused to make bond but appeared to the higher court. Judge W. L. Davidson of the court of criminal appeals granted the writ, fixing bail of $25,000 and the case is made returnable on October 4.

State Farms Damaged. AUSTIN, Aug. 30.—Much damage was done to the state farms by the recent tropical storm, according to Captain W. T. Craddock, personal representative of Governor Ferguson, who, with James Welch, auditor of the prison system, have just returned from making an inventory of the state property. Captain Craddock said that, at the request of the governor, he is engaged in making a complete inventory of the state farms and a dale of the system generally. This information is to be used by the governor in dealing with the prison problem when the matter is presented for legislative action.

No Action By Hutchings. AUSTIN, Aug. 30.—While another conference was held today between Governor Ferguson and Adjutant General Hutchings there was no announcement made as to the probable calling out of the Texas National Guard for duty in the border counties.

General Hutchings, however, announced that General Cecil A. Lyon, brigadier general of the guard, would be at Austin on Wednesday to confer with him and the governor relative to the coming emergency. It is expected at that time the place of holding the encampment will be determined.

Littlefield Bank Gets Permit. AUSTIN, Aug. 30.—At a meeting of the state banking board held today a certificate of authority to do business in Texas was issued to the Littlefield State bank of Littlefield, Lamb county. This is a guarantee fund bank and is capitalized at $20,000.

Katy Trains Delayed by Slide in Creek. Waxahachie, Aug. 30.—No trains are running on the Katy today between Dallas and Hubbard as a result of a slide in Chamber's creek bottom last night. The track was undermined by recent rains, causing the slide. It is believed it will require two or three days to repair the damage.

VAUDEVILLE AT THE ORPHEUM

Initial Program Includes Clever Artists, but Effect Marred by Indiscretions.

Those who have looked forward for many months to the time when Waco would have regular bookings of clean, high-class vaudeville found much to appreciate and yet much to deplore in the initial performance of vaudeville at the Orpheum Monday night. The bill consisted of four numbers from the regular weekly program of the Interstate circuit, which is presented at the Majestic theatres in Dallas, Fort Worth, Houston, and San Antonio, and was preceded by a half-hour interesting picture.

While much of last night's program was clever, the effect as a whole was marred by the exceeding coarseness of many of the jokes and the vulgar references to persons in the audience. The better element of theatre-goers in Waco will not stand for such tactics as this and the sooner the performers find this out the better. In justice to the management of the Orpheum, we wish to say they had not had an opportunity to witness a rehearsal of last night's performance in advance and we trust they will place a ban upon these appeals to the baser element hereafter.

Brosius and Brown, comedians and cyclists, are the cleverest. Brosius introduces the number with a clever bit of roller skating as one would care to see, while his performance on a most every character of cycle is the work of an expert. Brown, the comedian, in a Charlie Chaplin costume, makes a good partner and provokes a number of smiles.

Bert Melburn, impersonator, is bright and entertaining in his negro roles and but for the coarseness of his jokes and his alleged run at the expense of persons in the audience, would make a very acceptable number. He has a personality sufficient to grip his audience, his humor, when clean, is infectious, and he is well. We do not believe the majority of people who patronize theatres care for his "off color" stuff.

Homer Dickinson and Miss Grace Deagon in a stunt of singing, dancing and dancing are very good, though there was here, also, too much of suggestiveness in the jokes and too much of the expense of members of the audience. Their dancing is clever, but there was not enough of it.

In a section where cowboys have been known first-hand, Allen's Cheyenne Minstrels can hardly be appreciated at its full value, for it is a meritorious number for the most part, and in the north, east and southwest, where the real article in cowboys has never been known, it will prove even more popular than here. It is well staged, the special scenic effects being very good, and the singing of the quartet is quite satisfactory. It is in the mimicking of the voices of chickens, mules, hogs and calves that the stunt is cleverest, the work in that connection being of an exceptionally high order.

Last night's audience for the first performance was large and a good-sized crowd gathered for the second one. The first performance began each night at 7:30 and the second at 9:30. The bill changes with Thursday. Daily matinees are at 3 p. m.

Many Cotton Grade Disputes Settled

Washington, Aug. 30.—The department of agriculture announced today that 418 disputes on grade, quality or staple length of cotton, involving 39,653 bales, had been decided under the cotton futures law up to June 1. There are 195 disputes pending.

Child Swallows Gasoline.

Dallas, Aug. 30.—Morbidity sightseers crowded into the Magnolia pharmacy Sunday afternoon and through their ill-timed curiosity, prevented A. D. Honeycutt, a druggist, from administering first aid treatment to little Morris Levine, who had accidentally swallowed gasoline. The child died, although an emergency treatment administered immediately would in all probability have saved his life.

California Modifies Cattle Quarantine. Sacramento, Cal., Aug. 30.—Governor Hiram Johnson issued a proclamation tonight relieving many states from California's quarantine against ship and mouth disease, provided shipments of cattle, sheep and swine are made upon certificates of state veterinarians or if approved state inspections are sent to California. It becomes effective September 1. The proclamation includes Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Oklahoma, Texas and the Republic of Mexico.

OBSERVE SIXTIETH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

MR. AND MRS. JAMES C. FRAZIER CELEBRATE EVENT ON THEIR RANCH NEAR MORGAN.

All of Their Children Present, as Well as Many Other Relatives and Friends.

With all eight of their children still alive and present, Mr. and Mrs. James C. Frazier celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary yesterday at Frazier's ranch, five miles east of Morgan. The Fraziers lived in Waco for a number of years, Mrs. Frazier being a daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Moore. Mr. Frazier is 84 years old, his wife 77, and both of them are in good health.

In addition to their children, their children's families and a number of Mrs. Frazier's brothers and sisters, many of the happy couple's friends gathered to felicitate them upon the unusual occasion. The children, all of them present, are: Dr. Jacob M. Frazier, Belton; Dr. J. R. Frazier, Tom Temple; Mrs. Fannie Moss, Hico; Mrs. Will Ansell, San Marcos; Frank Frazier and Miss Kittie Frazier, Morgan. All of the children, with one exception, are married and have families. Mrs. Frazier's brothers and sisters present were Messrs. Luke, Tom and John Moore, Waco; James I. Moore, New York; Mrs. T. D. Hays, Waco; Mrs. W. K. Mendenhall, Brownsville; Bart Moore, Sr., also a brother of Mrs. Frazier, who is now in South Dakota, engaged in work for the federal Indian commissioner, could not be present today, much to his regret and that of Mr. and Mrs. Frazier. Mr. Frazier has a brother in West Texas, but both were unavoidably detained.

Coming to Texas from Tennessee in 1851, Mr. Frazier settled in East Texas, later going to Austin, where he worked as a surveyor for Jacob de Cordova, one of the men who originally owned the land where Waco is situated. Mr. Frazier was afterwards a partner of Mr. de Cordova's in the land business.

Mrs. Frazier was born in Kentucky, coming to Texas with her parents in 1853 and to Waco in 1867. The wedding ceremony was performed at Burton by Chief Justice Bourland on August 30, 1855. They resided on a farm in Bosque county until 1871, when they came to Waco, residing here until 1890, when they moved to their present home. Mr. Frazier has been a Mason for fifty years. He served through the civil war in the Nineteenth Texas cavalry.

Mrs. Frazier's parents lived to observe their sixtieth wedding anniversary in 1897. Dr. Moore dying the following year. Mrs. Moore, who attended Mrs. Frazier's golden wedding anniversary, died about eight years ago.

Waco Weather Fit for Summer Resort

Straw hats and Palm Beach suits looked highly uncomfortable yesterday with the temperature down in the 60's, but Dr. Block says it has been much colder here in past summers. Possession, show that the mercury went clear down to 53 once in June, down to 61 in July and down to 54 in August, all of the dates being predicted to 1909. Dr. Block predicted that the temperature would be as low as 58 or 60 by this morning, but that the weather would commence to warm up this evening.

School Election Held.

Citizens of school district No. 1-2 voted yesterday on a bond election of $500 for the purpose of erecting a new building. Returns were not brought in last night but are expected to reach the office of County Clerk John W. Baker today. The district includes Highland Place and part of Provident Heights, in fact, almost all of North and West Waco outside of the city boundary lines.

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"When our little girl was one month old she seemed to have an itching all over her body. Her feet commenced to break out badly, and her hands broke out a little. Her feet got very bad so that her toes became festored and five of them came off. The general appearance of the breaking out was pimples, and after breaking out would become inflamed and fester. It would cause loss of sleep for she would awake and cry. I got a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment. It was only about three weeks till she was well again." (Signed) Mrs. V. J. ### HIPPODROME.

"The Wheels of Justice." Only on rare occasions is such realism injected into a feature as there is in the Blue Ribbon feature, "The Wheels of Justice," scheduled on the V-L-S-E program, at the Hippodrome today only.

A good deal of the action in this feature takes place in the prison wherein is confined the accused, though innocent, victim of a plot. In one scene are shown more than 500 convicts at work in the dull hours in shop, grinding away the dull hours in an arduous manner. In this scene old-time prison life is typified; every glance from their work or any whispered word is followed by a strong and oftentimes physical reprimand from the keepers, of whom there are many in sight.

But some real action is shown when the rebellion takes place. The guards are set upon and beaten unmercifully. The action is so rapid and vivid that many sore heads and limbs were endured for days afterward.

The revolt is followed by the escape of several convicts in a "horror" automobile, and the chase ends in a tumble over the edge of a drawbridge, and a fall of many feet into the water below.

QUEEN.

Today, George Fawcett in "The Majesty of the Law."

The story of the play: Belonging to one of the finest families in Virginia, the son of old Judge Kent of the circuit court, and betrothed to beautiful Virginia Fairfax, young Jackson Kent had everything, before him. When the pearls stolen at Col. Monroe's ball were found in his overcoat pocket and he would make no explanation, Jackson's future was blasted.

He left the county seat and was not heard of again until his indictment in the local bank. It did not help him any that his father by the iron of duty should sit on the case; rather made it harder. Judge Kent imposed the maximum sentence, ten years. The spectacle of the father on the bench forced by his sense of honor and duty to sentence his own son was one of the saddest sights in the history of Evans county.

The unraveling of the tangle and the discovery of the real culprit gives the county seat a chance for rejoicing. If you enjoy a play with heart interest, love, honor and duty all rolled into one, you will be sure to see "The Majesty of the Law."

AT THE NICKEL.

Feature Thriller, "The King of the Wire."

Written and produced by the same emotion twister, Ashley Miller, who so successfully put on "Out of the Ruins," recently shown in Waco, the same man, Pat O'Malley, who put over the big life saving act in that play, here presents the bigger nerve-tugger still, walking on a slack wire high above the tree tops with Gladys Hulette on his back. As the wire swings and sways as we see the crows start out in pursuit, walking the same wire, even a hardened picture fan will get a thrill that starts the perspiration on this, a "cold day in August." Then comes the battle in the air, on the swaying wire, and the fall. All new, big gripping in the very unusualness of it, with a story and a punch you will not soon forget. Fancy prices do not make real pictures, but plays of power and players who are screen-artful. "The King of the Wire" is a great feature. Shown today only.

Notice to Contractors. Sealed proposals will be received until 5 p. m. Monday, Sept. 6th, 1915, by S. N. Mayfield, secretary of the Texas Cotton Palace Association, Waco, Texas, for the furnishing of all

Sixteen Feature Days—No Two Alike—Something New and Different Every Day and All Worth While

Nearly twelve full months have been spent on planning the Sixteen Days of the 1915 Texas Cotton Palace. The educational features have been in charge of men who make a careful study of these things. The amusement features have been in the hands of men who know what the public demands in the way of pleasing, high-class entertainment. These men have traveled the country over and have not been satisfied with just anything for these Sixteen Days, but instead have selected the best talent that the country affords.

Aside from the general exposition features the Cotton Palace Exhibition of 1915 will present more exclusive Cotton Palace attractions than ever before. It will be one of the few Expositions in the South that will present Horse Racing, Football Games and Race Track attractions. The new Race Track at the Texas Cotton Palace has been constructed along lines that experts say will make it one of the best tracks in the country. The big new grand stand is to be of the latest type with a large and comfortable seating capacity.

The Texas Cotton Palace Premiums on Livestock and Agricultural Products are larger this year than ever before and total the largest amount yet offered. If you are interested in these exhibits you should address Secretary Seth N. Mayfield, requesting one of the new Catalogs and Premium Lists.

To Have Experts Ready for War.
Washington, Aug. 30.—Plans for having immediately available for the nation's service in time of war associations of societies or engineers, bridge builders, electricians and other trained experts in civil life is being worked out at the army college in connection with the general reorganization scheme now being studied.
Secretary Garrison said today he had received numerous suggestions from members of these bodies that the organization might be of use to supplement the army engineer and expert corps should the need arise. William Barclay Parsons of New York and Elmer L. Colwell of Massachusetts, representing between them practically all the engineer societies, called personally upon the secretary today to tender formally the services of the organizations. Mr. Garrison obtained from the written suggestions as to ways in which the engineers in civil life could be useful many ideas, and the whole matter was turned over to the war college for the framing of a definite plan.
The war college will submit a detailed report on the scheme, which probably will be included in the secretary's report to congress this winter.

Yager, Kansas City, the present title holder, defeated Miss Rosalie Houlihan of Kansas City 6-0, 6-1. Miss Evelyn Seavey, Kansas City, Mo., valley champion in 1910, and Miss Marguerite Chesney of Phoenix, Ariz., scored easy victories.

PERRIN DOESN'T QUALIFY

Topped Shots Get Pine Valley Representative in Trouble—State Champion Toss Off at 9:05 A. M.

Special to The Morning News.
Detroit, Mich., Aug. 30.—Texas golfers were to the "fore" today and one of them, G. V. Rotan, by winning his right to qualify with the future golf immortals tomorrow, won a nerve-racking three-cornered tie before he got into the chivalrous circle.
Of the Lone Star golfers expected to show up well only R. W. Perrin, of the Pine Valley club, failed to qualify. Topped shots and inability to hole out properly in the chilly weather that prevailed cost him his chance, for his score of 170, when 150 was needed, would have been inside the limit with better luck.
Thomas Sherman, one of the winners of the American golfers' cup of the Utica club, is paired with Mr. Rotan in Tuesday's play. They tee-off at 9:05, the second pair to start the day's work. Jerome D. Travers, three-time champion, has Mr. Crump as an opponent, and thus if either survives he will have the distinction of doubling one of the cracks of golf creation.
Great Match To Be Played Today.
Detroit, Aug. 30.—One of the strongest western contenders for the national amateur golf championship will be eliminated in the first round of match play at the Country club tomorrow. The drawings which followed the completion of today's 36-hole qualification test picked Charles Evans, Jr., of Chicago to oppose D. E. Sawyer of Wheaton, Ill. Of the sixteen matches to be played none can compare in interest or importance with the clash between these two noted veterans, who did not play in the same event for five years.
Travers and Evans should win tomorrow and Wednesday they must meet on Thursday.
Quimet, if successful, will not be obliged to play either until the final round for the championship Saturday. Close followers of the sport who studied the drawings declared that Quimet had better than an even chance of successfully defending his title.
Quimet, who has been bothered with a cold, played a faster game than he did last week and his means were 155. Sawyer was one stroke behind him, while Travers and Evans finished with a card of 162. Nelson Whitney of New Orleans continued to attract and his 157 total was the result of steady play.
Among the survivors J. N. Stearns of Williamsport, Pa., won the first hole and George V. Rotan, entered from Huntington Valley club of Philadelphia, but whose home is in Waco, Texas, and who holds the Texas championship, defeated Parker Seelye of Bridgeport, Conn., on the second green. Rotan is paired tomorrow with T. M. Sherman of Utica 160 vs. George V. Rotan of Waco 168.
D. E. Sawyer of Wheaton, Ill., 156 vs. Charles Evans Jr. of Chicago 152.

DALLAS IS FAVORED AS CONVENTION CITY

ROTARIANS REQUESTED TO HELP BRING DEMOCRATS TO TEXAS.

STEAMBOATS ON BRAZOS IN 1916

C. W. Payne Makes Talk for Navigation—Prof. Cobb Announces Addition of Spanish at High School.

As the result of the action of the local Rotary club yesterday in endorsing Dallas as the best place for holding the next session of the national democratic convention, every Rotary club in the United States will be invited, through a letter from the local organization, to lend a hand, where possible, in landing the convention for Dallas, the only aspirant from this section of the country, and which has already received much encouragement from various sources.

The resolution on the subject, introduced by James Hays Quarles, was adopted unanimously as follows: "Whereas, the city of Dallas is a candidate for the designation of the city in which the democratic national convention is to be held in 1916 and an effort is being made to direct attention to the state of Texas as a proper state in which the members of one of the leading political parties should gather for their nation-wide meeting;

"Whereas, the International Rotary club having held a session in Texas, found this state to be generous in hospitality and a commonwealth of interest to visitors; and the members of the organization are able to say to their fellow citizens of other states that Texas is capable of providing all the accommodations and comforts that can be desired; be it

Resolved, by the Rotary club of Waco, Texas, that we endorse the desires and efforts of the people of the city of Dallas in their ambition to entertain the national democratic convention, and that we pledge our support and favor to the city of Dallas, in order that Texas may have this opportunity to take care of the great national gathering, and that people from all states in the union may visit and see something of the growing commonwealth."

Rotarians were also invited to lend their active co-operation to the movement to bring the navigation of the Brazos to an early consummation. C. W. Payne, recently chosen by the executive committee representing the local commercial bodies which are promoting the project, to gather data on the possible outlet and inlet through boats on the river in case of its navigation, said that he and the committee had adopted as their slogan "Steamboats Operating on the Brazos River in 1916." He said the prospect for large business in the way of traffic and general development not only for Waco but for all the towns and territory tributary to the Brazos river here and the Gulf, justified the assistance of the people living between here and Freeport.

In addition to making the Brazos navigable, the committee will endeavor to secure such early consummation of the project as will prevent the overflows that in past years have wrought heavy injury to crops and property. Mr. Payne explained, and he declared, that the double program was one that ought to inspire the co-operation of Rotarians and everyone else.

Spanish in High School.

Prof. B. B. Cobb, superintendent of public schools, made the announcement that the high school would offer a course in Spanish this year and gave it as his opinion that in view of the development of closer social, political and economic relations with the Central and South American countries, the business men of the city would find a knowledge of the Spanish language an invaluable asset. He said, too, that the high school was planning to inaugurate a four-year business course that is calculated to be of great value to the boys and girls who take it.

By a special vote it was decided that each member of the Rotary club who has received one of the Penn safety razors, through the generosity of the manufacturer, Rotarian A. C. Penn, 100 Lafayette street, New York City, and the courtesy of Rotarian J. M. Penland of the Waco Drug company, at whose suggestions and through whose instrumentality the razors were delivered, shall write Mr. Penn on a Cotton Palace post card and thank him for the razor.

F. L. Booth, chairman of the grievance committee, announced that as a result of a careful examination of the records maintained at the recent international convention at San Francisco, he had found that every member of the Waco delegation had attended the sessions regularly and had departed themselves well.

Impromptu addresses were delivered by Dr. Alec Spencer, Hal Moody, Dr. S. P. Brooks and Dr. J. S. Abbott. The latter, who is just recovering from an operation at a local hospital, is the guest of his brother-in-law, Dr. F. Conally. He was for several years state pure food officer and went from that position to that of chemist in the federal department of agriculture. He said that he had in his new duties been in every state in the union and that he liked Texas better than any of them and hoped to again make this state his home for business as well as social reasons. He told of a recent visit to Governor Kendrick of Wyoming, also a former Texan, and of the governor's loyalty to this state in spite of his residence in Wyoming for the past thirty years.

Dr. Abbott is a brother of Prof. R. L. Abbott, county superintendent of public instruction. He was toastmaster yesterday, but J. S. Hill, the regular orator, was unable, on account of absence from the city, to deliver his address. Next Monday's program will include J. E. Turner as toastmaster and Perry Duncan as orator.

Two More Exchanges Added to List by Texas Telephone Co.

Plants of Southwestern Company at Walnut Springs and Moody Formally Taken Over.

Two exchanges were added to the property of the Texas Telephone company yesterday, those at Moody and Walnut Springs, where the plants of the Southwestern Telegraph & Telephone company were taken over. The consolidations had been formerly ratified by the city authorities in each place some time ago and Mayor W. R. Willis of Moody, and Mayor J. L. Bird of Walnut Springs were notified yesterday that the details of purchase had been completed.

Linemen and switchboard men were sent to the two places yesterday and it was announced at the general offices of the Texas Telephone company, located here, that the work of connecting up the old Southwestern phones with their exchanges would probably be completed by Wednesday.

Telephone mergers at Meridian, Clifton and several other places near Waco will probably be effected soon, the consolidations having been authorized and new material having been purchased to be put into the plants. An announcement as to the progress of the consolidation of the two Waco plants is expected in the near future.

Piano Sale Begins With Many Buyers

Low prices are bringing results to Adams & Allcorn, who opened their big sale on pianos and piano-players at 709 Austin avenue yesterday. The stock of the Leyhe Piano company has been taken over and is being disposed of at prices which are proving attractive to the many purchasers who attended the sale yesterday.

Many of those who attended the sale yesterday marveled at the prices, which have been cut to less than wholesale cost. All instruments purchased are delivered free within a radius of fifty miles of Waco, and this feature is drawing a large number of buyers from neighboring towns. The stock consists of pianos and piano-players of high-grade makes, and every instrument is tuned before leaving the store. A handsome piano stool is also furnished with each instrument bought, and purchasers are given positive guarantees as to the article taken.

TWO BIG DAYS FOR 1915 COTTON PALACE

DELEGATIONS OF WOODMEN AND MACCABEES ARRANGE FOR DATES AT EXPOSITION.

MINSTRELS TO BE A FEATURE

Col. W. A. Poage Added to Livestock Committee—Suggestion Made to Start Permanent Museum.

Woodman and Maccabee days are to be two of the big days of the 1915 Cotton Palace, if plans discussed at the meeting of the Cotton Palace association last night materialize. Delegations were present from both the Maccabees and the Woodmen and much enthusiasm was shown. Maccabee day is to be Wednesday, November 10, Woodman day, Thursday, November 11.

Col. W. A. Poage was added to the livestock committee of the association last night. Colonel Poage is a member of the Texas Cattlemen's association and is one of the best known livestock men in the entire state. Members of the board believe that he will be a very valuable addition to the livestock committee and that he will help greatly in improving that department.

Five thousand Cotton Palace circulars, advertising Woodman day, were distributed at the state encampment held last week in Dallas by S. J. Flood, who appeared before the directors last night, discussing plans for Woodman day. He was accompanied by J. D. Alexander. There are about a thousand Woodmen in Waco and more than 5000 in a short radius of this city, and Mr. Alexander and Mr. Flood said that they believed a large number of them would attend the Cotton Palace.

In addition to their parade, the Woodmen will stage a competitive drill at the grounds, in which teams from the various camps will participate. Many more teams and many more bands than were here last year are expected for the coming exposition.

Headed by O. H. Cross, about twenty Maccabees were present, asking that they be given a special day, which was done, and a committee, consisting of Acting President John F. Wright, chairman, W. V. Crawford, F. E. Goodman and C. H. Cox, appointed to meet with a similar committee from the Maccabees Wednesday night and work out details, to be submitted at the next directors' meeting, next Monday night.

The Maccabees are planning to have a big parade with floats representing the tents of the various towns close to Waco. There are about twenty tents within a short distance and it is believed that many of them will participate. The Maccabees are strong in this section of the state and a vigorous advertising campaign was suggested to bring as many of them as possible together here.

In the afternoon the Ladies of the Maccabees will give their famous Red Cross drill, the collection and at night, the Maccabee minstrel show will be given. It was pointed out by members of the Maccabee committee that the background, a field of cotton, would be very appropriate for the Cotton Palace. The minstrels have given three performances, two in Waco and one in Waxahachie, and their show has met with universal commendation.

The committee consisted of O. H. Cross, Layton C. Puckett, J. N. Gallagher, F. M. Compton, E. C. Street, G. W. Tilley, William Reese, R. M. Sandford, A. R. King, W. D. Huglin, D. H. Cannon, R. G. Ard, Hugh Alling Willard Barrett, Frank J. Trau and several others.

It was suggested by Mr. Goodman that an effort be made to secure from the federal government a large collection of shells and old guns with which to start a museum. The matter will be looked into and a report made as soon as possible.

Almost every director of the association was present last night, a few being out of the city, and excellent progress was reported from all sides, indications being that the 1915 exposition will be the greatest ever held.

Baylor Will Teach Courses by Mail

The Baylor authorities are now advertising the fact that they will be able to offer correspondence courses to non-resident students this year. This system, which is proving so successful in other big schools, is now in Baylor, but it is hoped that there will be quite a number to take correspondence work this year while teaching in schools over the state. A member of the state teachers' examining board, who visited Baylor this last week, reported very favorably as to the work done by the summer normal. He said that the standard of grades made in the state examinations for teachers' certificates by the teachers who attended the Baylor normal was quite high and reflected credit upon the instructors and Baylor's summer normal system.

Waco Not Helping Storm Sufferers on Texas Coast

There has been comparatively no response to the appeal of the relief committee for donations of money and clothing for the sufferers of the recent storm, according to W. W. Seley, treasurer of the committee. Mr. Seley stated yesterday that there had been only one bundle of clothing left at the express offices and a single donation of $2.50 represented the total cash received by the committee.

Mayor J. W. Riggs is chairman of the relief committee appointed at the mass meeting held in the city hall just after the storm. There is much suffering on the coast, according to his information, said Mr. Seley, who urged that Waco awaken to her share of the responsibility of relieving the storm victims.
